

Getting Started with Homeschooling: Quick Start Guide

Withdraw your Child from Public School: Texas Homeschool Coalition - The basic steps of withdrawal and how to do so legally.

Submit a letter or email and a TEMPLATE is at the above hyperlinked web page. Make sure you have a start date effective immediately upon withdrawal, clearly listed.

You do not have to submit curriculum to the school but you must submit a proper withdrawal.

Sending an Assurance Email: Texas Homeschool Coalition - Schools may not ask you to provide them with a curriculum. This is a sample email you can send to a school if they ask questions above and beyond what is required by the Texas Education Agency (TEA).

ADDITIONAL ARTICLES AND RESOURCES

Getting Started with Curriculum A Guide to Homeschool Curriculum Chart Pre-K and Kinder, Supplies and Curriculum Getting Started with Elementary School How to Start Homeschooling Mid-Year Getting Started with Middle School Getting Started with High School